SKRADIN

Simply delightful in every single detail - small, picturesque and tasteful, Skradin is located on the spot where the river Krka kisses the sea. At this area, where ancient Romans used to moor their galleys 2000 years ago, lies the picturesque town of Skradin, where the simultaneous sounds of crickets and frogs best describe what a magical natural place this is. The old town of this fairytale-like place has been declared a protected cultural monument, and Skradin, the favourite meeting location of yachtsmen, also stands as the “maritime” entrance to another natural wonder - the nearby Krka National Park.

ZLARIN ISLAND

Just 30 minutes by boat from Šibenik lies the unspoiled island of Zlarin. Known locally as the “Golden Island,” Zlarin retains its turn-of-the-twentieth-century charm and beauty: quaint orderly villages, crystal clear waters, and a mix of secluded rocky and sandy beaches that outline its coast.

RAVNI ŽAKAN ISLAND

Ravni Žakan island is largely uninhabited except of one restaurant and the Kornati National Park staff during the season. Lying off the SE tip of the island of Kornat in the Kornati archipelago group Ravni Žakan provides two anchorages and good shelter in N and S winds. As part of the national park daily permit is required to visit the island.

ZUT ISLAND

The island of Zut is the second largest island of the Kornati archipelago, located between Pasman and the island of Kornat. Only a few people live on the island. There are numerous bays on the island, ideal for boaters. In the bay of Luka Zut there is a modern marina and several top restaurants where you can enjoy local specialties.

CROATIA / ADRIATIC SEA MURTER ISLAND

Murter Island is located in the northern part of the Sibenik archipelago and is one of the most popular vacation islands in Croatia. This islet delights visitors with uniquely beautiful beaches to relax on, romantic landscapes as well as a variety of charming resorts with magnificent old towns. In addition, Murter is an excellent starting point for boat trips and excursions to the offshore island world.

YACHTING

ADRIATIC SEA TRIBUNJ

Tribunj is a typical Dalmatian town and harbor. With its narrow streets and densely built houses, located 4 km west of Vodice and known for the cleanest sea in the Adriatic. The clear blue waters and rich flora and fauna make it an ideal place for swimming. Tribunj has a marina with 240 berths and 150 places on the mainland.
